About:

Grady (on the left) and Vader (on the right) are male Labrador Retriever mix brothers just 10 weeks old. They are diamonds in the rough and will need a patient adopter who can potty train them, crate train them, teach them how to walk on a leash and all the other things they need to know to be good dogs and great family pets. They are very playful and have tons of puppy energy. Grady is calmer and more laid back while Vader is outgoing and ready to play at anytime. I can't be adopted but you can take me home foster-to-adopt. You must agree to bring your puppy to our vet for its spay/neuter appointment.

A $150 deposit is required. If needed, we can lend you a crate until your puppy's adoption is finalized. Sue (513-484-9840) will work with you to schedule a convenient spay/neuter appointment. You may drop off the puppy before the office closes the night before the appointment or drop off the puppy by 9 am the day of the spay/neuter appointment. The vet office will call you with an update on your puppy and advise what time the puppy can be picked up (usually after 4 pm). When you pick your puppy up from its spay/neuter appointment, Bonnie or Sue will meet you at the vet's office to finalize your puppy's adoption. You will need to return the crate (if you borrowed one), sign the adoption contract and pay the bala...
